

STUDENTS

Student mobility opportunity in Spain: Erasmus+ program - Call for applications closes April 03, 2026.

For one week during the month of July, UAL's Erasmus+ Summer School will host students from all over the world to engage in an intensive intercultural and international atmosphere of learning.

Course topics will be taught by a wide range of UAL and international faculty and will offer a wide range of multidisciplinary and practical courses such financial literacy, IT and app development, humanities, communication, and other topics.

Are you Interested? Please submit your application by April 03 (no later than 4 p.m.)

Application criteria for students:

- Currently registered in a program at Georgian College
- Able to provide a copy of the language test results (English and/or Spanish – Level B2 or higher). If you're a national of a country where English and/or Spanish is the official language, you can provide a copy of your passport as proof of language proficiency
- Able to travel to Almería for one or more weeks during the month of July
- Able to pay for all expenses upfront. Grant funds will be provided to students after arrival at the University of Almería
- Able to attend classes for at least 1 week at UAL's Erasmus+ Summer School
- Students are expected to attend 4-8 lecturing hours per week

Nominated students will receive a grant to cover most of their expenses*:

- This includes:
 - 70 to 79€ per day (depending on the available budget) from day 1 to 14
 - Up to two additional days for travel support
 - Travel allowance, according to the travel band (see below)
- Distance and Travel allowance (using this distance calculator from your home institution to Almeria)

• 500 - 1.999km	275 €
• 3.000 - 3.999 km	530 €
• 4.000 - 7.999 km	820 €
• 8.000 km or more	1.500 €
- Example: A student going from Canada to take classes at the University of Almeria from July 1 to July 5 will receive a grant of $(7 \text{ days} \times 70\text{€}) + (820\text{€}) = 1,310\text{€}$

For inquiries about the program, please contact the office of Mobility and Global Experience at goabroad@georgiancollege.ca.