

Operation Hero Scholarship

$10,000 scholarship, granted annually (several available each year)

Eligibility requirements:

- Entering any post-secondary program at Georgian
- Present or past CAF member or dependent or spouse of present or past CAF member
- Resident of Ontario

Scan the QR code to learn more about the Operation Hero Scholarship and full eligibility requirements.

Honouring service and sacrifice: Operation Hero

Operation Hero scholarships are available for each year of study; each award (up to a max. of three per year) are in honour of the following:

First year

Private Kevin McKay Scholarship

Member of the 1st Battalion, Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry. Killed in action May 13, 2010. Recipient of the General Campaign Star – South-West Asia, Sacrifice Medal (Posthumous)

Second year

Sapper Brian Collier Scholarship

Member of the 1st Combat Engineer Regiment. Killed in action July 20, 2010. Recipient of The Sacrifice Medal, The Chief of Defense Staff Commendation

Third year

Major-General Richard Rohmer

World War 2 Veteran, recipient of the Distinguished Flying Cross. The Honorary Lieutenant-General of the Canadian Armed Forces, member of Toronto law firm Rohmer & Fenn, award-winning author, Rohmer is an honorary degree recipient from Georgian in 2019. He was also appointed a Chevalier of the Legion of Honour by the President of France in 2004.

Fourth year

Flying Officer J.C. Massie

J.C. Massie, served with the Royal Canadian Air Force and earned the Distinguished Flying Cross in the Second World War when he served as a navigator bomber on a Mosquito while stationed in northern England.

Supporting military members and their families

Georgian is committed to serving and supporting military-connected learners with an exceptional college experience.

Currently serving, veterans and their family members can access a variety of supports—including funding, academic, social, and mental health—geared to help these learners thrive and succeed.

Who is a military-connected learner?

Anyone that identifies as the following is a military-connected learner:

- Current serving members of the Regular Force
- Current serving members of the Reserve Component
- Veterans
- Department of National Defence (DND) – Civil Servant
- Immediate family of a Canadian Armed Forces (CAF) member or veteran
- Foreign military veteran

For more information, or guidance in completing the Operation Hero application, contact:

Military-connected Campus Coordinator
Georgian College

249.388.0036 | militaryconnected@georgiancollege.ca