HSCI 0312 IEN Transition to Practice

Important Registration and Course Information for Students

Information to guide your through your course at Georgian College

The purpose of this handbook is to provide students with information about the registration process, how to log in to our student systems, and how to find answers to questions you may have along your educational journey with us.

Welcome to HSCI 0312 IEN Transition to Practice!

The course consists of 7 weeks of content which is delivered fully online and in an asynchronous environment. The modules in this course have associated presentations, activities, simulations, and knowledge checks embedded within the Blackboard platform. There are set due dates for assignments and tests. Student paid, online access to Nurse Achieve which is an NCLEX preparation platform is a mandatory requirement of the course even if you have already completed your NCLEX or REx-PN.

Important Course Information

Starting April 1, 2025, Internationally Educated Nurses applying to become an RN for the first time in Ontario will be required to meet a Transition to Practice (TTP) requirement. The Transition to Practice requirement ensures that individuals who enter the nursing profession in Ontario are familiar with the competencies specific to the Canadian context of practice.

The Georgian College Transition to Nursing Practice in Ontario for Internationally Educated Nurses course is approved by the College of Nurses of Ontario (CNO). Applicants who successfully complete the approved Transition to Practice Course will meet CNO's ninth requirement to support their application for registration.

The course consists of the following modules:

MODULE 1: AN OVERVIEW OF THE CANADIAN HEALTH CARE SYSTEM
MODULE 2: NURSING IN ONTARIO: SCOPE OF PRACTICE AND PROFESSIONAL ACCOUNTABILITY
MODULE 3: THE RNS ROLE IN PROVIDING HIGH QUALITY, SAFE CLIENT CARE
MODULE 4: CARING FOR INDIGENOUS POPULATIONS
MODULE 5: TRENDS AND ISSUES
NCLEX PREP: DEVELOPING THE SKILLS TO PASS THE NCLEX REGISTRATION EXAM

This course is an asynchronous online delivery

HSCI 0312 is an asynchronous online course that you can complete on your own time and at your own pace. However, you must meet the deadlines for tests and assignments listed in the course syllabus, which you'll receive on the first day. Expect to spend about 8 hours a week on the course, plus additional time for readings and studying.

I'm ready to get started in this program. What are my next steps?

Step 1: Pre-registration – getting set up as a student
You will need a Georgian College student number to take this course. If you are new to Georgian, follow the steps below to generate a student number:

Create your student number online: Student Number

Once you have your student number and your login information, you can plan for course registration.

NOTE:

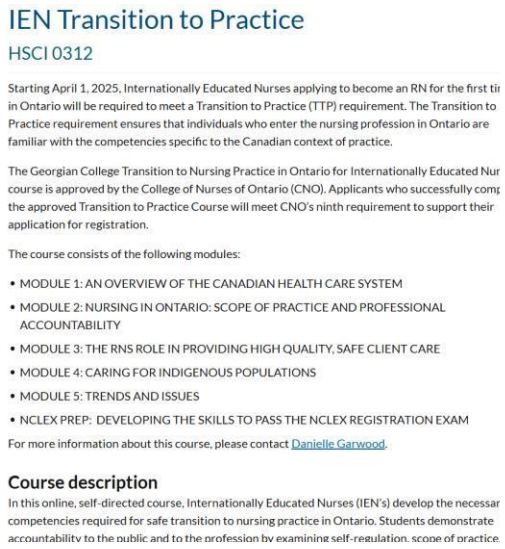

You are assigned a Georgian College email address along with your student number. You are REQUIRED to use this email address. Please check it frequently throughout the semester as we will only communicate with you about your student record through your Georgian email.

Step 1: Register for Courses

1. Web Registration

   Navigate to the Study IEN Transition to Practice at Georgian College course page
